The ancient language, which refused to disclose itself to the former Governors of India, unlocks its treasures at your command, and enriches the world with the history, learning and science of a distant age. The rising importance of our collegiate institution has never been more clearly demonstrated than on the present occasion; and thousands of the learned in distant nations will exult in this triumph of literature. What a singular exhibition has been this day presented to us! In presence of the supreme Gover-The Venerable Mr. Carey, for many years the Baptist Missionary in the north of India, following the steps of Schwartz in the south--in Oriental and classical learning his superior, and not inferior in laborious study and Christian zeal. Carey was the author of a Grammar of the Shanscrit Language, 900 4to pages; of a Grammar of the Bengal Language; of a Grammar of the Mahratta Language; of a Translation of the Scriptures into the Bengal Language; and of various other useful works in Oriental literature.--Buchanan. nor of India, and of its most learned and illustrious characters, Asiatic and European, an assembly is convened in which no word of our native tongue is spoken, but public discourse is maintained on interesting subjects in the languages of Asia. The colloquial Hindostanee, the classic Persian, the commercial Bengalee, the learned Arabic, and the primaeval Shanscrit, are spoken fluently, after having been studied grammatically by English youth. Did ever...
