Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Abraham Lincoln His Last Resting Place: A Leaflet Published for Distribution at the National Lincoln Monument in the City of Springfield, Illinois The chosen of God Mas slain in his high places. Our Moses who has led us through these four wilderness years, has been summoned of God, and now the whole nation stands in tearful agony around the mount whither his feet have gone up. Our joy and our sorrow stand side by side in the great book of God. The cloud of incense all radiant with light, had a fringe of sackcloth. It was a dark morning that saw our President die. The heavens were weeping. The sun hid himself in shadows, and the angel who bore his great spirit aloft was muffled in clouds. Fit emblem of those mightier shadows which rested upon our hearts. Strong type of those holier tears which were shed by a loving and noble people. The people s President and friend is dead, and it is proper in the calm light of this holy Sabbath that we...
