XIII: 31. The Kingdom of Heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed. It was on the 28th of December, 1731, Old Style, (corresponding to the 8th of the following month according to the New Style,) that the First Congregational Church was gathered in this place. Only a few days therefore are wanting to bring us to the one hundred and fifteenth anniversary of its organization. As this is the last Sabbath of the year, a fit time to turn to the past for instruction, I shall take this opportunity to commemorate the planting of this church by giving an outline of its history. Some may have a curiosity to learn why this is made the occasion for a commemorative discourse, since it is more usual to select the end of a century, or half century, as the most appropriate time for such historical retrospections. It would be a sufficient...
