The Surgeon General is charged with the administrative details of the medical department, the government of hospitals, the regulation of the duties of surgeons and assistant surgeons, and the appointment of acting medical officers, when needed, for local or detached service. He will issue orders and instructions relating to the professional duties of medical officers; and all communications from them, which require his action, will be made directly to him. 2. The Medical Director of an army corps will have the general control of the medical officers. 3. The Medical Director will inspect the hospitals under his control, and see that the rules and regulations with regard to them and the duties of the surgeons and assistant surgeons, are enforced. 4. He will examine the case books, prescription and diet books, and ascertain the nature of diseases which may have prevailed, and their probable causes; recommend the best method of prevention, and also make such suggestions relative to the situation, construction and economy of the hospitals, as may appear necessary for the benefit and comfort of the sick and the good of the service. 5. From the monthly reports of the medical officers of the command (Form 1), he will make to the Surgeon General a consolidated monthly report of the sick and wounded. 6. He will make to the Surgeon General a monthly return (Form 2) of the medical officers of the command. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
